

If I listen to XM for music, then why not traffic and weather? The NAB should only care that I get the information, not where I get it from.